

Coastlink playing it cool in Dunkirk in September

04. August 2009

In association with the port of Dunkirk, Coastlink will be staging its annual conference in the French port on 24 and 25 September. There is expected to be a strong emphasis on transport links between northern Europe and the Mediterranean and for the first time, the potential market for the reefer container in European supply chain systems will be examined in depth.

www.coastlink.co.uk